

2010 Summer Family Retreat

Directed by: *Christian Life Movement,
Sodalitium Christianae Vitae*

June 25-27, 2010
St. Malo Retreat Center
10758 State Hwy 7
Allenspark, CO 80510

Theme: The Family: A Fascinating Path to Holiness

During this year's Summer Family Retreat, we will take a very close look at the situation of today's world and examine the risks that this situation poses to our families. We will also ask fundamental questions about our humanity, and strive to deepen our longings, in asking the central questions of our existence: "Who am I?" - Looking to answer this question in the light of the mystery of Christ!

We hope to renew the sense of awe before the mystery of having been called to the vocation of marriage, and to understand better its implications. We will reflect on holiness as the ultimate goal of married life on a personal level and also as a loving responsibility toward our spouse. There will be meditations on the gift of children as the fruit of our love, and about the mystery of their own life, identity and mission.

Finally, we will consider the deep meaning of all our activities, especially of our work and its consequences for the world, as well as to think on our mission of giving testimony to Christian life.
